

The image displays a vertical sheet of music paper with 12 blank staves. Each staff is a five-line musical staff with a treble clef (G-clef) positioned at the beginning. The staves are arranged in a column, separated by small gaps. Each staff is divided into six equal-width measures by vertical bar lines. The paper is otherwise blank, with no notes or other markings.